

Bayesian updating based on Hausdorff outer measures and the role of emotions during the therapeutic phase of alliance

Serena Doria & Iolanda Angelucci

We investigate if the notion of unconscious given by Matte Blanco, based on the generalization principle and the symmetric principle, can be represented by a self-similar set

We analyze the consequences of this representation when the updating of knowledge based on Hausdorff outer measures